

PRONTO-Xi

RF

Increase warehouse efficiency and shop floor productivity by utilizing PRONTO-Xi RF. Maximize order accuracy and increase the effectiveness of your inventory and warehouse management by introducing wireless data communications.

Paperless warehousing made easy!

PRONTO-Xi RF extends your ability to reduce paper based business processes with an innovative solution which:

- ◆ Reduces administration costs;
- ◆ Eliminates errors in standard business processes; and
- ◆ Streamlines information flow within your enterprise systems.

PRONTO-Xi RF extends your Distribution module, providing a solid platform to grow and further automate your warehouse operation with PRONTO-Xi WMS.

How it works

PRONTO-Xi RF allows you to electronically transmit tasks using radio frequency technology from the PRONTO-Xi system to your operators' handheld or vehicle mounted terminals.

When a task is completed, information is returned to the host in real time by simple key encoding or scanning a barcoded label. When combined with the PRONTO-Xi Warehouse Management System all processes from simple receipting and stocktake through to picking and packing can be performed for a fast, accurate and streamlined warehouse operation.

Key Benefits

- ◆ Increased accuracy of order fulfilment
- ◆ Automated stock take and receipting
- ◆ Reduction of paperwork and paper handling for increased warehouse productivity
- ◆ Real time order management and automated order confirmation
- ◆ Reduced credit returns

Technology

PRONTO-Xi RF is compatible with a range of leading hardware devices including:

- ◆ Symbol/Motorola

- ◆ Intermec

- ◆ Denso

Simplify Warehouse Processes

Whether you are operating a small or large warehouse, PRONTO-Xi RF will allow you to take complexity out of your business processes. Automating time consuming manual tasks will simplify your warehouse operation for consistent performance and ease of staff training.

Enhance Warehouse Operations

PRONTO-Xi RF wireless warehousing streamlines your operations reducing paperwork and double handling resulting in enhanced processes, reduced cost and better customer service.

Improve Customer Service

PRONTO-Xi RF will automate general warehouse functions to eliminate paper based procedures and reduce labor intensity saving time and cost. Paperless processing means a reduction in errors resulting in improved customer service.

...so easy to work with™

Fully integrated, Pronto-Xi RF extends the power of your enterprise management system providing improved visibility and real time processing from your warehouse operation through to other PRONTO-Xi modules.
